

SAFER FOUNDATION is Offering Employment Training in the Food Service Industry

In July of 2019, the National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation (NRAEF) received funding from the U.S. Department of Labor for the Hospitality Opportunity for People (Re)Entering Society (HOPES) project: a reentry projects grant to support hundreds of justice-involved young people through training, employment and apprenticeships in the restaurant and food service industry.

HOPES is part of the NRAEF's Restaurant Ready initiative, a national program dedicated to helping young adults acquire the basic job and life skills necessary to pursue jobs in the restaurant industry and jumpstart a pathway to independence.

Program Benefits:

- Obtain a credential in Food Service
- Connect with the Illinois Restaurant Association's network of industry employers
- Qualify for an apprenticeship program and advance your career
- Earn your GED

Call Today to See if You Qualify!

Eligibility:

Ages 18 - 24

Currently involved or has been involved with the juvenile justice system or adult justice system.

Contact:

Ruby Dorsey

773-533-3096

ruby.dorsey@saferfoundation.org

This workforce product was funded by a grant awarded by the U.S. Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration. The product was created by the recipient and does not necessarily reflect the official position of the U.S. Department of Labor. The Department of Labor makes no guarantees, warranties, or assurances of any kind, express or implied, with respect to such information, including any information on linked sites and including, but not limited to, accuracy of the information or its completeness, timeliness, usefulness, adequacy, continued availability, or ownership. This product is copyrighted by the institution that created it.

